

March 28, 1941.

Dr. John L. Slack,
560 - 2nd Ave.,
Daytona Beach, Fla.

Dear Doctor:

I wrote you yesterday, saying we were going to use Oscar Charleston's San Blas Indians in Daytona Beach Easter Sunday. I have just learned I can have the Jacksonville Red Caps, consequently, I am going to use them instead. I will have the placards made and shipped to you right away. Disregard my letter of yesterday.

Very truly yours,

AM:CCJ